Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless boon to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retro-version or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famed specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native, medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

STORY OF ASSAULT.

Miss Lora Letendra, of Fall River, Mass., still weak from her hideous experience of last Tuesday night, faced her alleged assailants, Charles Thompson and Thomas J. Murphy, in the District Court Saturday. Both men were held for the grand jury on the charge of criminal assault.

Miss Letendra told a straightforward story to the court. She was too weak to stand. She does not weigh more than 90 pounds.

Murphy and Thompson according to the young woman's story, pretended they were officers of the law and that she had committed a misdemeanor in walking upon an uncompleted highway. They made her accompany them to Thompson's house, where Miss Letendra was told she would have to remain overnight, and that she would be given a room to herself. Murphy took her up stairs to a chamber and told her to go to bed. She feared to do so, but he reasserted that she need have no fear.

She had partly disrobed when Murphy returned to the room and maltreated her for about two hours. After he went down stairs Thompson came into the room and similarly maltreated her. She screamed, and Thompson's wife came up stairs and reproached him, but Thompson ordered his wife down stairs. Miss Letendra asked the woman to take her with her. The wife replied that she could not, but she would take her husband down.

To escape Thompson Miss Letendra jumped out of the second story window. Thompson pursued and forced her to return to the house. Miss Letendra finally lost consciousness.

Henry Duran, a boarder, testified that he heard Miss Letendra cry out to Mrs. Thompson, "For God's sake, take me with you!"

"I can't, little girl," he understood Mrs. Thompson to reply.

Duran left the house. He could hear Miss Letendra shriek a quarter of a mile away.

Sherman M. Stebbins, who took upon himself the responsibility of making Thompson and Murphy prisoners, testified to damaging admissions made to him by both men. Thompson weighs 275 pounds, and stands nearly six and a half feet in his stockings.

Thompson's wife swore roundly yesterday at Sherman Stebbins for interfering in "other people's business,"

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. K. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

DISORDERS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

As a result of an attack on the strike-breaking crew of a car in San Francisco Saturday night two men were shot and wounded, three persons were injured in the wrecking of a building by a runaway car, many others were severely clubbed by policemen and more than a score of arrests were made for rioting.

A car of the United Railroads, in charge of Conductor J. Talltskong and Motorman Fellett, at Twenty-ninth and Noel streets, was ready to start on a trip when three men standing in the darkness 15 yards away opened fire on the car with revolvers. Conductor Talltskong had just raised his left arm to signal the motorman to go ahead when a bullet smashed his elbow. Almost at the same moment Motorman Fellet dropped to the floor of his car with a bullet in his right thigh. Another car drew up at the time. The crew left it standing and took the car with the wounded men to the car barns at Twenty-ninth and Mission streets.

As they turned the corner at that point they saw their car coming down the hill at terrific speed. Arriving at the turn, the runaway car jumped the track and plunged into a haberdasher's store, wrecking the building. Sophie Bernstein, daughter of the proprietor of the store; Ralph D. Hoff, wife and child, customers, were painfully cut and bruised by breaking glass and falling timbers.

An immense crowd immediately gathered and fire-alarm and riot calls were turned in. The police reserves charged the crowd and used clubs freely. Many heads were cracked and 20 arrests were made for rioting. Police Sergeant Lane was hit in the back of the head with a stone and seriously hurt. He fired three shots at the man who threw the missile.

It is supposed that the men who attacked the crew released the brake on the other car and started it down the hill.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FATAL FREAK OF CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST.

Eugene How, of New York, was planer and polisher of hardwood parquet floors and did well at his trade up to last May, but since he began to read Mary G. Baker Eddy's "Science and Health, With Key to Scriptures" and the like he had little time to attend to his trade.

He gave up smoking, changed most of his habits of life and not long ago decided that eating breakfast was all a mistake.

Shortly after 10 o'clock on Saturday night How went home and retired to bed with one of Mrs. Eddy's books.

Along about midnight How, so his wife says, began to act in an unusual manner. He finally made for a front window, climed out on the sill and announced that he was going to fly out on the night air.

Mrs. How ran to the window and managed to grasp her husband by the ankle just as he leaped. She held his weight with all the strength there was in her arms, which were badly cut and bruised by coming in contact with the sharp edge of the stone window sill. Finally the woman's strength gave way, and, with a shriek that aroused the neighborhood she fell back into the room in a faint.

How's skull was fractured and his body and legs were torn and crushed. He died at the hospital without regaining consciousness. When he leaped from the window How carried with him Mrs. Eddy's book.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

MONDAY EVENING. JULY 22, 1907.

MR. WM. J. BRYAN, in a statement made in Lincoln, Neb., Saturday, which outlines what he would have the democratic party incorporate in its next presidential platform, disclaims any intention at the present day, to strive for government ownership, and, at the same time, makes a stand for State's rights. He says that the control of railroads is the most potent issue before the people of the United States, and that Mr. Roosevelt, though sincere in his endeavors to make the railways play fair with the public, is powerless to do so. Speaking of the rate-regulation bill, Mr. Bryan declares that its only effect has been to give to the railroads immense pecuniary reward by prohibiting the issuance of free passes and the granting of rebates on freight shipments. The people, he says, have not been benefited at all, and the exorbitant railway rates are the same as before the "regulation" bill was passed. Mr. Bryan's real friends will be glad to learn that he has modified his views on pubic ownership. Had he never entertained or uttered them it would have been better for him and for those most interested in the country's welfare.

COL. AYRES, because his wife freely expressed her opinion concerning some other army officers, was ordered before an examining board appointed to ascertain his mental and physical fitness to continue in the army. The colonel showed more sense during the examination then did all the members of the board combined, so they declared him physically unsounds and he must "go." The whole proceeding was a farce, but it may serve as a warning to the wives of officers who may have an exhalted opinion of the valor of their husbands to be a little more charry in expressing such opinions at the expense of other officers.

GEN. BELL in a recent speech in the West said "There is something wrong with the army" and surely there is if the almost daily reports of the misconduct of the officers can be taken as an index. Why a court martial of Lieut. Col. Ayers was feared lest "another scandal in the army," be unearthed. Still Secretary Taft says, and his remark is echoed by most of those in the War Department, that "the trouble in the army is that there is not enough of it." The Secretary evidently wants more men to help the others do nothing.

THE CONVENTION of Elks in Philadelphia last week did a sensible thing when it discontinued the use of the elk's tooth as a badge of membership in the order. Too many elks were being slaughtered merely to furnish insignia for the brotherhood—or at least, for those insignia wearers who balked at anything but the real article.

REPORTS from Paris are to the effect that the divorced wife of Count Boni de Castellane, who was Miss Annie Gould, of New York, is to be married again. It is hoped that her second husband will be of a different kind from her first, for Boni was the limit. She deserves a better fate in her next venture.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, July 22.

A lot of foolish laws have been foisted upon the people of Porto Rico, according to Senor Jose de Diego, speaker of the House of Delegates of that island, who has brought his troubles to Washington, and will carry them on to Oyster Bay. For instance, he calls attention to one law copied bodily from a New York statute, which contains a provision that "a stove shall be placed in every jury room." He does not think Porto Rico needs stoves as much as some other things. "I have come to tell the President the truth about the feeling of the people of Porto Rico in regard to the United States and the laws of the island, he said today. "Others have talked to the President, but told him only what they thought he would like to hear. I am here to speak of the exact conditions. The people are not satisfied. They want either citizenship to the United States or self government. They are as well qualified as Cuba, and prehaps better. The laws do not suit us. We are at the mercy of the men the President sends down to us. Fortunately they have been good men but we tremble to think what might be. No man who comes fresh from the United States can understand us and make satisfactory laws." Diego predicts that if the proposed French tariff becomes a law, Porto Rico will suffer a blow from which it can never recover. Among other things, he will ask that a school of agriculture be established in the islands, to teach the native modern methods of farming.

The formal opening of the battle of the federal government against the Standard Oil Company, in its efforts to legally dissolve trust, will begin at St. Paul, in a few days. F. M. Kellogg who has had charge of the investigation for the Department of Justice, is already there getting his evidence in shape to submit it before a master, who has already been selected, but who has not yet fixed the time for beginning the work. J. V. Graves, a special agent of the department, who has been assisting in the investigation, left today with a huge box filled to the cover with valuable exhibits. He carries, among other documents, an advance copy of the forthcoming sensational report of the commissioner of corporations of its inquiry into the management and operation of the oil industry.

The application of the Georgetown Gas Light Company to increase its capital stock to $300 000, which was to have been considered this morning, went over until next Monday, when it will be considered in Judge Gould's Court.

Charged by Lee On, a Chinaman, employed at Moy's store, on Pennsylvania Avenue, with holding him up at a revolver's point, and demanding a pipeful of opium, Harry M. Puryear, of Richmond, Va., is under arrest. The young man says it is all a mistake, that he was broke, and merely asked the Chinaman to lend him $2 on the gun. Puryear's relatives have been informed of the arres'.

In the absence of advices from the American legation in Caracas, State Department officials do not believe that President Castro has taken exception to the awards made on American claims by the arbitration of 1903, as has been reported, on the ground that the awards were excessive.

Fire completely wrecked the stables at Lyndenhurst, the country estate of John Wanamaker, near Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. The villa was destroyed by fire on the night of February 9 last with a loss of $2,000,000. Three horses were burned yesterday, together with the carriages, harnesses, coachmen's equipments, and, most valuable of all, bronzes, statuary and costly china saved from the February fire. Estimates place the value of the stable property at from $35,000 to $50,000 and the contents at about $100,000 additional. Fortunately nearly all the important paintings of Mr. Wanamaker's collection, such as Munkacsy's "Christ Before Pilate," had been removed to Philadelphia a few weeks ago.

It has been the fortune of Cecilia Johnson, sister of "Mushmouth" Johnson, the negro gambler, whose illicit traffic has been the despair of Chicago's reform element, to furnish the greatest sensation ever uncovered at the University of Chicago. As a leader in society in the Rockefeller school and a member of one of the most exclusive sororities, Cecilia Johnson posed for more than three years as a white girl and won her way to the top of the varsity social ladder. Her identity has just been discovered and she has been "dropped."

Aguinaldo's cousin, Proctoso Castro, is in the station house charged with flourishing a revolver. A policeman, who made the arrest last night, says the Filipino was just about to use the gun on Miss May Kaiser, a pretty 20-year old girl, of whom Castro had been enamored. The young man who is a messenger in the War Department, protests that he had no murderous designs, but drew the gun merely to emphasize his protestations of love.

John S. Smith, of Baltimore, Md., who is training Tommy Lowe, for his fight with Jimmy Briggs, is under arrest on a charge of vagrancy. Policeman McDonald says Smith brought two young women from Baltimore and delivered them from $5 a piece to a local dive.

Miss Annie Wood, of Norfolk, Va., temporarily detained at the government hopital, for the insane, will be turned over to her relatives, who have been summoned to Washington. She was arrested on the steamer Newport News. She declard that she had come to interview President Roosevelt.

"Slave driver" and "bully" are among the epithets applied to Public Printer Stillings by employees of the Government Printing Office. Resolutions denouncing in vigorous terms Mr. Stilling's recent order fining proof-readers for overlooking errors were today forwarded to President Roosevelt and laid before the Department of Justice by Columbia Typographical Union, No. 101.

Death from Fright.

Bethel, Me., July 22.—Several women of Bethel are still in bed and one lies dead as the result of the fright they received Saturday night when the elephants of Robbins's circus broke loose after the performance was over. The spectators were leaving the tent when a thunder storm broke with terrific force, tearing down tents and driving the animals wild with terror. Miss Fannie Mercier was sitting alone in her car. When she looked out from the sheltering hood and saw towering above her the gleaming tusks and long trunk of an immense elephant she gave a shriek and fell back unconscious. Physicians were unable to restore her and yesterday she died.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, Idaho, July 22.—That the Haywood jury will disagree is the opinion expressed by practically every one in Boise who has followed the trial closely from the beginning to the present time.

In the event of a disagreement the defense will make a strong effort to have not only Haywood, but the rest of the prisoners held in connection with the Steunenberg murder, admitted to bail. The prosecution will oppose this strongly. It is declared a second trial will be begun as quickly as possible.

The jury will probably get the case sometime Friday.

Presidency of Steel Trust.

New York, July 22.—There is to be a fight for the presidency of the steel trust. Some of the directors think William Ellis Corey has lost his usefulness to the corporation by his matrimonial troubles, marriage to Mabelle Gilman, and prolonged absences from his post of duty. They have decided to appoint President Alva C. Dinkey, of the Carnegie Steel Company, at the board meeting July 30. President Corey proposes to stay where he is. He denied on his arrival here from Europe Saturday that he would resign, adding that he had heard nothing of Dinkey's selection to succeed him.

Thirty-four Dead.

Detroit, Mich., July 22.—Danner Higgins, 28, a Pere Marquet'e employe, died in Harper Hospital here today, increasing the total death list from Saturday's wreck at Salem, Mich., to 34. There are an even hundred injured, some of these being beyond recovery. Despite the fact that all the excursionists were riding on free tickets which contained a stipulation relieving the railroad from responsibilities for damage, Pere Marquette officials say the road will pay equitable damages to relatives of the dead and to those maimed in the accident.

Application Denied.

New York, July 22.—Justice Day today denied the application of Clarence C. Shearn, attorney for W. R. Hearst in the suit brought by District Attorney Jerome against the Hearst newspapers to postponed the exanimation of Jerome until September. The desire of Shearn was to continue the matter until the return of Assistant District Attorney Gans from Europe. Jerome testified that his campaign contribution list was handled by Gans. The suit was brought in connection with editorials printed during Jerome's independent campaign for his present office.

His brother rushed forward and threw his arms around Herbert just as the edge of the bank gave way, and both were precipitated into the swollen torrent. A. McHugh and the law offices of A. E. Warner, R. H. Bagby and Commonwealth's Attorney R. C. Marshall The stock of Mr. Anderson and Mrs. McHugh and the law libraries of the attorneys were all destroyed by fire, smoke and water.

COL. AYRES MUST GO.

As stated in Saturday's Gazette, the surgeons on the retiring board that has had the case of Lieut. Col Charles Ayres under consideration reported that the colonel is not fit physicially for further service in the army. The colonel met the report defiantly, intimating in a warm speech that he was being railroaded out of the service, while old officers less fit than he are being retained through favoritism.

Maj. Edie, the chief surgeon, reported that the examination which he and Capt. Wadham had made showed that Col. Ayres is suffering from chronic kidney disease and hardening of the arteries.

Col. Ayres listened to the description of his ailments with a smile. When asked if he had any question to put to the surgeons, he said:

"Yes, I want to ask them why I should be retired if I should be still willing to take chances in the field."

"You should be retired on your condition," replied Maj. Edie, "because every man is under obligations to his family not to expose himself unnecessarily."

"Isn't that a risk I run, anyway? I might be shot," said the colonel. Then he added: "Am I not in the same condition as the majority of officers of my age and rank?"

The colonel then asked that he be allowed to make a statement. This was granted. The statement was in substance a review of his career in the army and a denial that he was physically unfit for further service. He admitted that charges had been brought against him for almost every crime in the calendar, but out of all this he had only been found guilty of challenging a man to fight a duel and of having a soldier for a servant. He asserted that he did not consider that he had been given a square deal.

Maj. Edie said that the condition of the colonel was due to his hardships in army life. That means that Col. Ayres will be retired on full pay.

THE RAILROADS AND THE STATES.

Argument in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by J. H. Wood and O. C. Wilson in the United States Circuit Court at Asheville, N. C., to secure their release from the sentence imposed on them Thursday by the city police court for violating, as agents of the Southern, the State rate law was closed Saturday afternoon, and Judge Pritchard announced that, as he wished to accompany his decision with a written statement, he would adjourn court until today.

The entire day was taken up with arguments by counsel for the petitioners and State, General Counsel Thom, of the Southern, appearing for the former, and Judge J. H. Merrimon, of Asheville, for the latter. Judge Merrimon contended that no court had ever paralyzed other courts by preventing them from proceeding in criminal cases by suspending a statute, and he further contended that the court could not hold that the State Legislature could fix rates, but could not provide punishment for failure to observe such rates.

Mr. Thom argued to the effect that the penal act of the rate law was unconstitutional on its face, and was so proven by evidence, because it allowed such extraordinary fines that through fear of them the railroad would be deprived of the inalienable right to resist the law in the courts, and that as the court had taken jurisdiction of the rate law in the case decided June 29, it was legally bound to protect that jurisdiction, since otherwise it would be a nullity.

President Finley and General Counsel Thom, of the Southern, have made no move in the matter of the fine of $30,000 imposed by Judge Long, of the State court, at Raleigh, against the Southern.

Gov. Glenn Saturday issued a statement defining the attitude of the State in the prosecutions against the Southern Railway Company for violating the State rate act. He says that if the Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line will acquiesce in the law as the other roads have, then no further indictments will be made. But if they persist in selling tickets at a higher rate than 21-½ cents he will instruct State's attorneys to aid solicitors in prosecuting these railroad companies until they obey the law, or until the court of the highest jurisdiction declares the rate law unconstitutional.

In Asheville Saturday President Finley of the Southern Railway gave out a statement bearing upon the railroad cases now before Judge Pritchard. Mr. Finley, after explaining the character of the cases, declared such have from time to time been filed in a large number of States and have heretofore progressed in an orderly way to final determination. He recites how the public is protected by the railroads giving coupons to purchasers of tickets covering the differences between the old and new passenger rate fixed by the legislature, and the statement is made that the whole case can be disposed of in a few months.

He further says: "It would seem to be perfectly plain that if an individual or corporatson believed itself to be in danger of deprivation of its property by legislation, it should be allowed the privileges of having the validity of the legislation determined in an orderly method. It ours is to be a government of law and not of man, then surely no litigant should be deprived of a fair opportunity of going into the courts to protect his rights. The Southern Railway Company is bound to protect its property, not only in the interest of its owners and creditors, but also in the interest of the whole public.

A dispatch from Richmond says the State of Virginia will not surrender to the railroads of the State. That is practically certain though no official statement has been given out by the officers authorized to speak.

The Governor has called for a conference of the members of the State Corporation Commission, the Attorney General and A. C. Braxton, who is assisting the Attorney General, to be held in the office of the Governor today. There is a belief that at the conference it will be determined to disregard the order and injunction of Judge Pritchard and to go ahead and enforce the order of the commission.

This can be done in various ways. The commission may proceed to publish the rates and may cite the railroads to appear and show cause why they should not be dealt with according to law. The idea is to have the matter brought to a head without any delay, and the contempt proceedings is believed to be the shortest way to get at the bottom of the difficulty, as in that way the case may be taken direct to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Died from Her Injuries.

New York, July 22.—Miss Nellie Madigan died today in Jamaica Hospital, where she was taken after being terribly burned, when an automobile in which she and her fiance, Dr. Edward T. Gallagher, were driving was struck by a fast train and Dr. Gallagher met a sudden and horrible death.

As they approached the crossing of the Long Island railroad just outside St. Albans in Dr. Gallagher's racing car last evening, another came up and the driver challenged the lovers to a race. Dr. Gallagher increased his speed.

The two machines dashed toward the crossing just as the Amaganzett express was due to pass. One of the racers stopped short in time, but Dr. Gallagher did not slacken his speed. The locomotive picked up his car and hurled it thirty feet in the air. It fell upside down and a moment later the gasoline tank exploded and flames enveloped the wreck.

Attempting to Swim English Channel.

Dover, Eng., July 22.—Just a year after his previous unsuccessful attempt, Jabez Wolffe, a Scotch amateur swimmer, started this morning in an effort to swim the English channel. He entered the water at South Foreland and made a strong start. The sea was calm but cold. Wolffe's previous effort to swim the channel was made on July 18 last year. He got within seven miles of the French coast when he injured his leg and was obliged to give up.

One Hundred Persons Drowned by Collision.

San Francisco, July 22.—One hundred persons are believed to have been drowned when the steamer Columbia was sunk by collision with the lumber steamship San Pedro, of Shelter Cove, about 12 o'clock Saturday night.

About an equal number of passengers from the Columbia escaped death by getting aboard the San Pedro.

The accident occurred in a heavy fog and the Columbia went down in a very few minutes after she was struck with terrific force on the port bow by the San Pedro.

The doomed passengers were caught like rats and had no chance of escape. Captain A. P. Doran is reported to have gone down with the ship.

The San Pedro was badly damaged, but was kept afloat and her passengers, as well as those who boarded her from the Columbia, were taken off by the steamship George E. Elder and the vessel is now being towed to Eureka.

The scenes aboard the Columbia, as meagerly told in reports reaching here were terrible. Husbands and wives were parted and many who clambered upon the San Pedro saw their loved ones swallowed up by the black sea as the Columbia went down.

The total number of survivors is 88.

The Columbia was an iron screw steamship of 2,722 tons. She was built in 1880 by J. Roach and Son, of Chester, Pa., and was owned by the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Company.

She was on her way from this port to Portland at the time of the collision. She was 308.4 feet long, 38.5 feet beam and 11.2 draught.

Conditions in Korea.

Seoul, July 22.—Defeated, deposed and threatened with exile, Yi Hieung, late Emperor of Korea, is making more trouble for Japan than when he actually held the reigns of power.

Despite every effort by the Japanese authorities the former emperor has undoubtedly been in constant communication since his abdication with the anti-Japanese rioters, and is said practically to have directed the commotions, which have continued intermittently for the past three days and promise to go on indefinitely unless the entire country is covered with the Mikado's troops.

Rumor has it that the present emperor, a weakling, will not remain long on the throne, and that Prince Huiwha Yee, the deposed emperor's second son, will be his successor.

Huiwha Yee has long been known for his pro-Japanese sentiment. He was educated at Roanoke College, Virginia, and is well known in New York, where several of his escapades caused sensations of which the news reached his father.

One of his trips to Coney Island cost Korea $30,000. The prince did not pay the money in actual cash, but in notes, which his father paid to escape an international scandal.

He was reported engaged to various American young women at various times and was once knocked down by a drunken farmer in Ohio, who mistook him for a Chinese.

Four Hundred Miners Perish.

Tokio, July 22.—An explosion today at the Toyo Oka coal mines is believed to have cost the lives of over four hundred miners. The mines were crowded with workmen when the exposion occurred, shutting them off from escape to the surface.

Details of the explosion are lacking and no cause for the disaster is given in the meagre reports received. It is known that there 471 miners in the workings and only a few of these were able to get out. It is feared all the others have met death, as the explosion is reported to have been very violent.

Evidence of the force of the explosion is given in the shattered remains of some of the victims. It will be hard to identify many of the bodies, so badly were they mutilated.

It is feared fire broke out in the mine following the explosion and that the timbers in the workings are burning. If so, there is little hope for any of the entombed men.

Panic exists among residents of the district. When news of the disaster spread hundreds of frantic women and children rushed to the mouth of the mines clamoring for word of husbands and fathers. The wildest disorder prevailed and it was some time before rescue parties could even be organized and the panic-stricken mob of relatives of the entombed miners driven back.

Suicide in Park.

New York, July 22.—Returning to a spot in Central Park where he could see his former happy home and perhaps catch a glimpse of his deserted wife, A. Lansing Baird, after wandering about the country three months in an effort to evade officers holding a warrant for him, committed suicide today by sending a bullet through his brain.

Three months ago he was manager for the brokerage firm of Brown, Ryan and Williams when he disappeared. It was charged that he had appropriated several thousand dollars of the firms money and passed worthless checks. His wife recently heard that he had been seen by relatives in Louisville, Ky.

The Two-Cent Rate.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., July 22.—At the end of a conference of State officials today at the Capitol to consider what action the State will take in the two-cent rate case, it was announced, that no statement would be made for the present. The impression is that no final decision was reached. There is reason to belive that Gov. Swanson and Judge Prentis, chairman of the Corporation Commission, favor publication of the two cent order in violation of federal Judge Pritchard's injunction.

Killed Wife and Attempted Suicide.

Camden, N. J., July 22.—Married but one month Bert Bruce, of Howell street, this city, at nine o'clock this morning shot and killed his 22-year-old bride. Bruce then turned the weapon on himself and fired a shot into his brain. He was taken to the hospital where it is said he will die. He was 25 years old. The couple had a bitter quarrel which ended in the tragedy.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

JAMES BONTZ DROWNED.

Mr. R. H. McCall, a young man who lives in Wilmington, Del., arrived here late last night and gave an account of the sad drowning there yesterday of Mr. James Bontz, son of Mr. George Bontz, of this city. Mr. McCall says that yesterday a party of six or seven ladies and gentlemen left Wilmington on a steam launch to spend the evening on the river. They invited young McCall, Allan Smith, son of Mr. B. B. Smith, of this city, and young Bontz to accompany them. The two Alexandrians boarded with McCall's mother. When the launch had gotten some distance down the river it ran into shallow water and young Bontz, who was an excellent swimmer, put on a pair of old overalls, jumped overboard and swam to deeper water, all on the boat watching him and enjoying the amusement he was affording them. Suddenly he called for help and the launch was started towards him, but the rudder had become entangled in the river grass and was broken off. Then one of the men on the launch jumped overboard and swam towards young Bontz but before he could reach him the unfortunate young man disappeared beneath the surface of the water and was drowned in the presence of all on the launch. His body was subsequently recovered and the party of pleasure seekers returned to Wilmington. Young McCall at once started for this city to inform the parents of the unfortunate young man of the sad accident and this morning he returned to his home accompanied by Mr. George Bontz, jr., a brother of James. The remains will be brought here for interment. Young Bontz and his friend, Allan Smith, had been employed in the Pennsylvania Railroad shops in Wilmington for some time and were doing admirably as machinists. They had made many friends there and were regarded as exemplary young men. Young Bontz, who was in the 20th year of his age, three or four years ago took the Superintendent's medal at Washington school, in this city, where he had a host of friends. His family have the sympathy of all their large circle of friends and relatives in the hour of their sad bereavement.

NO BOYCOTT.

The proceedings of the public meeting under the auspices of the Trades Council yesterday afternoon indicate that there is no immediate prospect for a boycott of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway by organized labor. The advisability of adopting radical measures against the road was discussed, but no definite action was taken. The sentiment expressed was distinctly opposed to declaring a boycott under existing conditions.

The failure to take action brought forth a vigorous protest from members of the railway union, who charged that their organization was being deserted in its fight. They urged the immediate necessity of a boycott to support them.

When it appeared from the pointed statements of several members of the Trades Council that the sentiment of the body was opposed to the declaration of a boycott several of the members of the railway union declared that they might as well return their charter as an organization.

An informal report of the proceedings will be made to the Central Labor Union this evening. This, it is expected, will have the result of indefinitely postponing action on the resolution passed by the local branch of the railway union declaring the electric line "unfair" to organized labor.

RAN OVER A CHILD.

John Creegan, the two-year-old son of Mr. William J. Creegan, whose home is at 417 south Alfred street, was knocked down by one of E. E. Lowler & Co's delivery wagons near the intersection of Alfred and Wolfe streets Saturday afternoon and seriously injured. The wagon which was drawn by one horse and was only partially loaded, was driven by Peyton Gray, colored. Gray was placed under arrest by Policeman Bell and he was arraigned before Justice Caton this morning. The evidence was to the effect that the horse attached to the vehicle was walking; that Gray had dropped the lines and was examining bills he had in his hand; that the child while crossing the street got in front of the horse; that the animal turned to avoid colliding with the little one; that the shafts struck him, knocked him down, and when the wagon was stopped the hind wheel was on the head of the child. The latter's head was seriously injured, and if he recovers he will, it is thought, lose the sight of one eye. Justice Caton continued the case, and released Gray upon his own recognizance. The child had wandered from its home and it was some time after the accident before it could be ascertained where he lived and what was his name.

DANCE.

The dance at the Golf Club on Saturday was, as usual, a great success. The hill looked beautiful in the moonlight and proved to be as attractive as the dancing. Among the guests from a distance were Miss Virginia Gibson, from Parkersburg, W. Va.; Cadets Stanley Rumbough and Theodore Chase, of the U. S. M. A., West Point; Mr. Wright Rumbough, of the University of California; Misses Annie Selden, Helen Gill, Josephine Harvey, Messrs. William Waggaman, Robert Davis, Kersley Selden and Dr. Charles Billard, of Washington. The house committee has decided to give another dance next Saturday night instead of the card party of which notice was given. This will be the last entertainment at the club until September, and all members are asked to come, as the committee goes to considerable trouble to make the dances a success.

DEATH OF CAPT. GEOHEGAN.

Capt. James A. Geohegan, commander of the iceboat Latrobe, of Baltimore, died after a brief illness Saturday afternoon at his residence in Baltimore. The deceased was born in Baltimore in 1840. He was a brother of Captain W. C. Geohegan of the steamer Anne Arundel and at one time commanded the steamer Norfolk of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company. The funeral took place at 12 o'clock today. The body was taken to Washington, where interment was made in the Rock Creek Cemetery.

There were no visitors to the ark yesterday, the tugboat Bartholdi having made a trip to Colonial Beach. The Washingtonians and others who have appeared every Sunday at the foot of King street, during the past few months awaiting transportation to the floating Monte Carlo were conspicuous by their absence yesterday.

PLAN FRUSTRATED.

Frank Townsend, a one-legged tramp, who was recently sent to jail for 90 days for vagrancy, cut a hole in the roof on Friday through which he and others in a room with him proposed to escape Saturday night. Warden Candler, however, ascertained what had been done and frustrated the plan.

TAKES ISSUE WITH STILLINGS.

Columbia Typographical Union, of Washington which includes in its membership all the printers and proofreaders employed in the Government Printing Office, has declared war on Public Printer Stillings for his recent action in making the proofreaders pay for the reprinting of a report of the Bureau of Education, which that bureau refused to accept, and which the printing office was compelled to print a second time because each of the two proofreaders in succession permitted the word "cemetery" to stand in place of the word "seminary."

At the meeting yesterday the Union protested against Mr. Stillings' action as "arbitrary and unwarranted," adding that such action "is inimical to the craft's best interests and contrary to the laws of the United States." It further states its belief that Public Printer Stillings is prompted "by the hope that it will result, combined with other unnecessary and tyrannical acts of the said Public Printer, in the demoralization and disruption of our members now employed in the Government Printing Office."

The secretary of the Union, Mr. Seibold, was instructed to call upon Attorney General Bonaparte for a legal opinion as to the right of Mr. Stillings "to deduct arbitrarily any sums from the pay of Government Printing Office employes as fines or discipline for errors overlooked by them in the discharge of their duties in that office."

A copy of the resolution will be sent to President Roosevelt.

TWINS TO MARRY TWINS.

Gertrude and Agnes Lynch, twins, of Omaha, Neb., and Albert and Walter Lynch, twins, of Sioux City, Ia., have met and a rumor has it that there is to be a double wedding. Double Weddings are not uncommon, and weddings of twins have been heard of, also marriages of people of the same name, but a double wedding of twin sisters and twin brothers without a single surname being changed in the operation probably is unprecedented. The situation is perplexing, however, and there are those who say that the resemblance of one brother to the other and one sister to the other is so strong that neither brother ond neither sister is quite sure which of the other twins he or she loves. So it is probable they will have to get better acquainted before there is a wedding.—Salt Lake Tribune.
